

Equity Reflections – Why Do Communities Grow Unevenly

Taking Action for Fairness

Choose one way to apply what you learned:

- Welcome Project → Create a welcome card or message for new classmates or neighbors.
- Resource Poster → Design a visual showing what growing communities need (schools, housing, healthcare, jobs).
- Community Awareness → Research one way your city or town supports new families and share your findings with your class.

Creative Box

 Draw or sketch an idea here:

- An exponential growth curve showing how the population doubles over time.
- OR an image of diverse people joining together to build an equitable community.

Anchor Quote

“Equity means planning for growth so that everyone—new and longtime residents alike—can share in opportunity.”
